

A Report on Departmental Seminar

Date: 20th Jan, 2019

Venue: College Auditorium

Theme: E-Learning: The Need of the Present Scenario

Organized by: English Department

In collaboration with IQAC, Salbari College

Chairperson: Dr. Sapan Narzary, HoD, English

Introduction: The English Department of Salbari College, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), organized a seminar on January 20, 2019, focusing on the theme "E-Learning: The Need of the Present Scenario." It aimed to explore the growing significance of e-learning in contemporary education and its implications for teaching and learning practices.

Seminar Highlights: The seminar commenced with an opening address by Dr. Jagat Ch. Basumatary, Principal, Salbari College, who underscored the importance of embracing e-learning technologies to meet the evolving needs and challenges of the digital age.

Departmental speakers, including experts from various departments in educational technology and online pedagogy, delivered their presentations on different aspects of e-learning, including its potential benefits, challenges, and best practices. They highlighted the transformative impact of e-learning on access to education, learner engagement, and instructional effectiveness. Participants had the opportunity to explore innovative approaches to incorporating e-learning into curriculum design, instructional delivery, and assessment practices.

Principal
Salbari College, Salbari, Baksa

Outcomes:

- 1. Awareness and Understanding: Participants gained a deeper awareness and understanding of the role of e-learning in addressing the diverse needs and challenges of modern education, including its potential to enhance flexibility, accessibility, and personalized learning experiences.
- 2. Pedagogical Innovation: The seminar inspired educators to explore new pedagogical approaches and instructional strategies that leverage e-learning technologies to engage learners, facilitate active participation, and promote deeper learning outcomes.
- 3. Professional Development: Faculty members and instructional support staff benefited from the seminar by acquiring practical knowledge, skills, and resources for designing, implementing, and evaluating e-learning initiatives in their respective teaching contexts.

Conclusion: The departmental seminar on "E-Learning: The Need of the Present Scenario" provided a platform for dialogue, reflection, and collaboration on the integration of e-learning into higher education. By fostering a deeper understanding of e-learning technologies and practices, the seminar contributed to the advancement of pedagogical innovation and instructional excellence at Salbari College.

Vote of Thanks: We extend our heartfelt gratitude to Dr. Jagat Ch. Basumatary, Principal, and the team of IQAC, Salbari College. keynote speakers, presenters, students, and participants for their valuable contributions to the success of the seminar.

Future Initiatives: The English Department and IQAC, Salbari College, remain committed to promoting the continued exploration and adoption of e-learning technologies to enhance teaching and learning experiences. Future initiatives will focus on capacity-building, research, and collaboration to further integrate e-learning into the educational landscape of the college.

Principal
Salbari College, Salbari, Baksa