

Departmental Seminar on
Relevance of the Study of History

Date of Event: 16/08/2018

Time: 02.00 PM

Venue: Classroom

Purpose: Promoting the Importance of Historical Studies

Brief Note:

A quality initiative program in the form of a departmental seminar on the topic "Relevance of the Study of History" was organized by the Department of History, Salbari College, in collaboration with the Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), Salbari College. The seminar took place on 16/08/2018 in a classroom setting.

The participants of the seminar included both students and faculty members of the History Department. Esteemed speakers and experts in the field of history shared their insights on the importance and relevance of studying history in contemporary times. The seminar explored various aspects such as understanding the past to inform the present, the role of history in shaping identity and culture, and the significance of historical research in academia and beyond.

Outcome of the Program:

The seminar provided a platform for engaging discussions and reflections on the importance of historical studies. Participants gained a deeper appreciation for the relevance of history in understanding societal dynamics and fostering critical thinking skills. The program contributed to the intellectual enrichment of both students and faculty members, reaffirming the significance of historical education in academic discourse.

Principal
Salbari College, Salbari, Baksa